Hello Folks

Received your letter today, and the cigarette yesterday. They came at the right moment because I had just run out of them.

Tell Mom I got the two dollars but not to send any more. I have about five dollars now and it should last me until I am shipped out of here to a regular company. I don't get paid until I am transferred but it will only be about a month more.

I showed the pictures to the fellows in my hut and all I hear is compliments on what a fine family I have. Everybody comments on how cute Diane is.

Had a blackout yesterday because of the attack on Los Angeles. We got up & dressed in the dark, made our bunks and then went to show. We did every thing with the efficiency and precision that the Marine Corps are noted for. We have nothing to fear from any body at any time because we are well protected by the Army, Navy, and Marine Air Corps.

We had our first regimental review today and tomorrow we have a inspection by Lieut. Col. Groff, who is our chief officer. We will leave for the rifle ranges Sat. You still can address my mail the same way as they will forward it to the rifle range.

About the cookies, I had my share and a little more, because the fellows in my platoon are no gluttons. The apple pie was sent to a fellow by his brother who is a corporal here. He cut it into five pieces and that was all there was to the pie. About the head it was broken but not so bad that I couldn't use it. I have enough to last me until I am there here at the Base.

Haven't been feeling good for the last two days because I finally got a cold. It has lodged in my chest and I really feel miserable at times. It will probably break in a few days and then every thing will be alright.

at the present time I can't think of any thing I need that I can't get at the Post Exchange. You folks at home are doing enough for me now, and until I can repay you all I can say is Thank You.

If you think I am not writing enough forgive me because it seems that every time I sit down to write we get called out to do something and it gets awfully hard to keep my temper but I do. After I am thru on the rifle range I will have a little more time than I do at the present, then I will try to do justice to some of the fine letters you have written.

Well, I have to go iron my pants shirt and tie, come back and clean my rifle and then hit the hay because I feel sort of tired.

So Long

George

P.S. Didn't get to see Guy Kyser because the show was for the permanent bare personell only. We did see a damn good picture tho. It was in the shadow of the thin man.
